Tell Seniors About Your Event With A Free Listing In Our Calendar

The Milestones newspaper calendar of events includes activities, trips, parties and other events appropriate for seniors. Please take the time to fill out the form below, so that your event information can be included. There is no limit on the number of events you may submit. Please photocopy extra forms if needed. Some events may not be included in the Milestones calendar due to space limitations.

Please note: Only events specifically for or about senior citizens will be entered into the website calendar, www.pcaCares.org

Please only include events that are in Philadelphia and are open to the public. Please do not include classes or other events for which previous attendance is a prerequisite.

Please email completed forms to: milestonesnews@pcaCares.org

Submission deadline: 25th of the month for publication in the month after next.

Example: December events need to be submitted in October.
